

ARLETA NEIGHBORHOOD COUNCIL (ANC) FACEBOOK COMMENT GUIDELINES

Purpose

ANC welcomes comments and opinions from all visitors to our online communities relating to Local Government Topics, Community Events or Local News topics and issues. All visitors to our sites need to abide by our online comment guidelines.

Policy

We encourage comments that:

- Are "on topic", or that stick to the subject matter of the article or blog post.
- Are responses to comments left by other readers.
- Are brief and have a positive, constructive tone.
- Might disagree with the content in the article or blog post, but do not insult the writer (or commenter) of an article or blog post.

We discourage comments that:

- Are not "on topic", or that don't stick to the subject matter of the article or blog post.
- Insult the writer (or commenter) of an article or blog post.
- Are non-constructive, hateful or spiteful.

Should comments or exchanges develop into personal attacks or inappropriate remarks, ANC reserves the right to remove them at any time.

We will delete comments that contain language or imagery which:

- Are defamatory, compromise public safety or operations, contravene law, or are disruptive or factually inaccurate.
- Are harassing, threatening or vulgar (including personal attacks or comments disparaging an individual or group based on ethnicity, race, gender, religion, age, disability or sexual orientation), invade personal privacy, contain sexual content or are obscene.

- Are advertising or spam, including any link to another site.
- Infringe on a copyright or other proprietary right.
- Violate any of this site's Terms and Conditions.
- Violate City of Los Angeles Polices, Department of Neighborhood Empowerment Polices, ANC Bylaws, Standing Rules, and ANC's Code of Conduct.

Violation of ANC's online comment guidelines will result in a commenter's post being removed without notice.

The ANC Facebook page is for general informational purposes for its stakeholders and is not intended to replace information and features found at arletanc.org. For updated alerts announcements, ANC's agendas, official stakeholder comment forms, and more, please visit arletanc.org.

Please use the Customer Comment Form to leave feedback regarding the facebook page or website and any suggestions on how to improve our outreach. For other official comments and suggestions, please contact the Board President's Office at president@arletanc.org, or call Melvin Canas, Dept. of Neighborhood Empowerment Representative at 213-978-1551 or mail correspondence to:
