About the L.A. Trust

The Los Angeles Trust for Children's Health (L.A. Trust) is a 501(c)3 organization exclusively focused on school health programs in Los Angeles County. Working specifically within L.A. Unified, the mission of the L.A. Trust is to improve student health and readiness to learn through access, advocacy and programs. The L.A. Trust provides strategic funding and support for the L.A. Unified Wellness Networks, school health centers and other student health services. Programs supported by the L.A. Trust have provided in excess of 200,000 healthcare visits annually to the students of L.A. Unified. More information is available at thelatrust.org.

About the L.A. Trust Board of Directors

The Trust's board of directors currently has members representing diverse communities, universities, physicians, L.A. Unified health and human services staff, and school administrators. The Trust's charter provides that each L.A. Unified Board of Education member may appoint a member to the Trust's board of directors. The Trust board also includes several supportive at-large members who are committed to student and community health and wellness.

The Board of Directors meets at the L.A. Unified administrative headquarters in Downtown Los Angeles. The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, August 25, 2016.

About the L.A. Unified Human Relations Commission

The L.A. Unified Human Relations Commission was founded over a decade ago to serve as a "critical friend" and to advise the District on matters related to human relations, diversity and equity. The Commissioners represent L.A. Unified Board Members, bargaining units, and community partners, such as the Anti-Defamation League, Museum of Tolerance, the Human Relations Commissions for Los Angeles County, and the City of Los Angeles, et al.

The Commission meets the second Thursday of each month, 6-8 p.m., in the L.A. Unified headquarters in downtown Los Angeles. Commissioners may also be asked to serve on subcommittees that align with their areas of interest or strength. The sub-committees focus on a variety of topics such as parent engagement, LGBTQ, disproportionality, ethnic studies, and restorative justice.
